

Buccleuch: estates land management statement

Names of main landholdings:	Queensberry Estate Borders Estate Dalkeith Country Park Boughton Estate
Area	190,000 acres
Location	South of Scotland (Dumfries and Galloway and The Scottish Borders) Central Scotland (Mid and East Lothian) Northamptonshire Information on specific land areas, as registered with Registers of Scotland and the Land Registry is available on our website
Ownership and decision-making	Buccleuch is the trading name of The MDS Estates Ltd and is governed by a Board of Directors and Executive Committee . Further details regarding ownership of the business, are outlined within the transparency statement . Title to land which is owned by Buccleuch is held by different entities which are generally subsidiaries of The MDS Estates Limited. More information can be found on our Land Registration website .
Overall purpose of management	The aim of Buccleuch is to manage the land sustainably and in line with the strategic aims of the business and the core values of community, customers, colleagues, and environment.
Overview of management	As a business, Buccleuch participates in a diverse range of sectors, from agriculture and forestry, to hospitality, rural and commercial property, and renewable energy. When making land use decisions, Buccleuch gives equal and due consideration to each sector, whilst achieving the delicate balance between economic, environmental and community needs. This is encapsulated in our holistic decision-making process, which seeks to improve and enhance the land-based assets, maintain a sustainable business, and ensure continued employment for our colleagues.
Contact details	Contact details for our Executive Committee, who each manage one of the Estates or business sectors are available on our website .